Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective May 3, 2011, iBio, Inc. (the "Company") appointed Douglas Beck, 50, as the Company's Chief Financial Officer, replacing Frederick Larcombe, who will remain with the Company until the filing of the Company's next quarterly report on Form 10-Q.

Mr. Beck is a CPA and was the Chief Financial Officer of publicly-traded Lev Pharmaceuticals, Inc. from May 2005 until February 2009 (the company was acquired by ViroPharma, Incorporated in October 2008), and he has been an independent consultant since February 2009. Mr. Beck holds a B.S. from the Fairleigh Dickinson University.

There is no arrangement or understanding between Mr. Beck and any other person, pursuant to which Mr. Beck is to be selected as an officer. Mr. Beck is not a party to any transactions that would require disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

In connection with his appointment, Mr. Beck was granted a stock option to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock under the Company's stock incentive plan, which shall vest in three equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of Mr. Beck's service, at an exercise price set at the last trading price on the date of appointment. Mr. Beck will be employed on an at-will basis, with an initial annual base salary of $165,000.

On May 3, 2011, the Company issued a press release announcing the appointment of Mr. Beck. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

iBio Appoints Douglas Beck Chief Financial Officer

NEWARK, Del.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- iBio, Inc. (NYSE AMEX:IBIO) announced today that Douglas Beck, C.P.A. has joined the company as Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. Beck has extensive prior experience in public accounting including at both Andersen LLP and Eisner Amper LLP, and in corporate management as chief financial officer of two public companies, first an electronics company and then a biopharmaceutical company. In 2005 he was appointed CFO of Lev Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (Lev) where he was responsible for financial planning, financial reporting, accounting and tax matters. Mr. Beck worked with the executive team in the successful sale of Lev to ViroPharma, Incorporated.

“Doug brings outstanding expertise to iBio,” said Robert B. Kay, iBio’s Chairman and CEO. “He has a broad range of experience in senior financial management positions both in and outside the biotechnology industry, and brings extensive experience in the equity capital markets, financial aspects of the business development process, and merger and acquisition transactions.”

Mr. Beck is a graduate of Fairleigh Dickinson University where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting in 1983. He serves on the SEC Practice Committee and the Chief Financial Officers Committee for the New York State Society of CPAs.

About iBio, Inc.

iBio, Inc. is a biotechnology company offering its proprietary, transformative iBioLaunch technology platform for the production of biologics including therapeutic proteins and vaccines. The iBioLaunch platform uses transient gene expression in green plants for superior efficiency in protein production. Advantages include significantly lower capital and process costs.
