Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 25, 2024, iBio, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”) with Otsuka Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. (“Otsuka”) pursuant to which the Company sold and assigned to Otsuka, and Otsuka purchased and assumed, all intellectual property rights directly related to the Company’s PD-1 agonist assets (the “PD-1 Assets”) developed or held for development in consideration of $1,000,000 paid at closing (the “Closing Consideration”). The Purchase Agreement also provides for a potential contingent payment of $2,500,000 upon the achievement of specified developmental milestones and a second potential contingent payment of $50,000,000 upon the achievement of specified milestones following commercialization. The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants of the Company and Otsuka. The acquisition of the PD-1 Assets (the “Acquisition”) closed on February 25, 2024.

The Company acquired the PD-1 Assets on September 19, 2022 when it entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “RubrYc Agreement”) with RubrYc Therapeutics, Inc. The RubrYc Agreement contains a potential contingent payment by the Company, payable in cash or shares of the common stock, at the Company’s option, in the event specified developmental milestones are achieved on or before the fifth anniversary of the closing date of the RubrYc Agreement. None of the specified developmental milestones of the RubrYc Agreement are related to the PD-1 Assets. As noted above, only the PD-1 Assets are being sold to Otsuka under the Purchase Agreement,

The foregoing summary of the Purchase Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Purchase Agreement that is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1.

The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Purchase Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties. Accordingly, the Purchase Agreement is incorporated herein by reference only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Purchase Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding the Company, Otsuka or either of their businesses, and should be read in conjunction with the disclosures in the Company’s periodic reports and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”).

This ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is entered into as of February 25, 2024, by and between iBio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Seller”), and Otsuka Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., a company organized under the Laws of Japan (“Buyer”). Hereinafter, “Parties” shall mean Seller and Buyer together, and “Party” shall mean either Seller or Buyer, as the context requires.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Seller and its Affiliates are engaged in, among other things, the Program (as defined below); and

WHEREAS, Seller desires to sell, and Buyer desires to acquire, all of the assets and rights of Seller and its Affiliates related to the Program (other than to the extent constituting Excluded Assets (as such term is defined herein)) on the terms set forth in this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing premises and the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, each Party hereby agrees as follows:

ARTICLE I

(a) all Intellectual Property Rights owned by Seller or any of its Affiliates that are or have been used or held for use in connection with the Program or any Molecule or Product at any time prior to the Closing, including the Patents set forth on Schedule 1.1(a) (the “Purchased IP”);

(b) all books, records, files, manuals, and other documentation (including protocols, data files, research reports, and laboratory notebooks), or portion thereof, to the extent relating to the Program or any Molecule or Product, including (i) all data in all databases for all pre-clinical studies for all Development undertaken in connection with any Molecule, (ii) all Purchased IP files, file histories and other technical documents and correspondence, and (iii) all business information, tangible or intangible, to the extent relating to any of the Molecules or Products;

(c) other than Insurance Assets, all Claims of whatever kind or description, or portion thereof (regardless of whether or not asserted by Seller or any of its Affiliates prior to the Closing Date, whether known or unknown, contingent or otherwise), to the extent relating to any of the Purchased Assets, including in respect of infringement or misappropriation of the Purchased IP;

(d) all rights of indemnity, warranty, contribution, reimbursement, set-off or other recovery, and any right to refund, against third parties (whether known or unknown, contingent or otherwise) to the extent relating to any of the Purchased Assets; and

(e) all intangibles and goodwill arising from the Program (including any Molecule or Product or any other Purchased Asset).

Section 1.2 Excluded Assets.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Buyer shall not purchase or acquire, and Seller and its Affiliates shall retain from and after the Closing, all of their respective right, title and interest in and to the following (collectively, the “Excluded Assets”):

(a) all bank accounts, including any cash or cash equivalents, whether held by Seller or any of its Affiliates, held as a deposit or in transit;

(b) any organizational documents (including Seller’s corporate charter), books, or records, taxpayer or other identification numbers, qualifications to conduct business in any jurisdiction, seals and minute books of Seller and its Affiliates, and any other documents relating to the organization, maintenance, capitalization, and existence of Seller as a corporation or any Affiliate as an entity;

(c) any Marks, including, but not limited to “iBio”, “EngageTx,” “ShieldTx,” and “RubrYc Therapeutics”;

(d) all Intellectual Property Rights owned by Seller or any of its Affiliates that are not, and have not at any time been, used or held for use in connection with the Program or any Molecule or Product; provided that, for the avoidance of doubt, the foregoing shall not include any Intellectual Property Rights relating to the Program or any Molecule that were acquired by Seller and its Affiliates in connection with the 2022 Asset Purchase Agreement;

(e) all insurance policies, including any proceeds or recoveries thereunder and rights to assert Claims with respect thereto (“Insurance Assets”);

(f) any rights of Seller or any of its Affiliates arising out of or relating to any Transaction Document;

(g) any Tax refunds or credits relating to the Program, the Purchased Assets or the Assumed Obligations, in each case, which were applied for and arise from activities during any Pre-Closing Tax Period (or portion thereof) prior to the Closing Date;

(h) all rights in connection with any employee benefit plan (and assets thereof);

(j) any Contract in respect of (i) the provision of services by personnel (including any director, employee or other individual agent) of Seller or any of its Affiliates or (ii) indebtedness for borrowed money (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, in respect of accounts payable incurred in the ordinary course of business), including any and all indentures, notes, mortgages, security interests and guarantees in respect thereof;

(l) any outstanding or rights to acquire equity interests in any Person; and

(m) any real property (whether owned, leased or otherwise) or fixtures, including any Contract for the lease, license or ownership thereof.

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary (but subject to the final sentence of this paragraph and further subject to Section 5.2), this Agreement will not constitute an agreement to assign at Closing any Contract otherwise constituting a Purchased Asset (a “Relevant Contract”) or any claim, right or benefit arising thereunder or resulting therefrom, unless and until Buyer delivers written notice to Seller expressly assuming such Relevant Contract (thereafter, an “Assumed Contract”); provided that, if the agreement to assign or attempt to assign, without the approval or consent of a Third Party, would constitute a breach of an Assumed Contract or in any way adversely affect the rights of Buyer under an Assumed Contract, then until any such required approval or consent is obtained, Buyer shall be entitled to receive the benefits of such Assumed Contract, as if such Assumed Contract had been assigned and transferred to Buyer hereunder as of the Closing, in accordance with the terms of Section 5.2. Any assignment or transfer to Buyer by Seller or any of its Affiliates of any Assumed Contract that requires the approval, consent or other action of any Third Party will, without reducing or adversely affecting the obligations of Seller or any of its Affiliates to transfer or assign such Assumed Contract pursuant to this Agreement, or the representations and warranties of Seller set forth in Article II, be made subject to such approval, consent or other action being obtained, and shall become fully effective when actually obtained. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, Buyer may, in its sole discretion, deliver written notice to Seller that the assignment and transfer of an Assumed Contract hereunder be made effective as of the date of such written notice, notwithstanding that any required approval, consent or other action has not then been obtained.

Section 1.3 Assumed Obligations.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, Buyer shall, at the Closing, assume and, from and after the Closing, pay, perform, satisfy and discharge (or cause to be paid, performed, satisfied and discharged) when due, all of the following Obligations of Seller and its Affiliates arising from and after the Closing Date, but specifically excluding any Obligations to the extent representing Excluded Obligations (collectively, the “Assumed Obligations”):

(a) any Obligation under or in respect of the Purchased Assets; and

(b) (i) any Taxes arising in connection with the Program or with respect to the Purchased Assets for (or relating to) a Post-Closing Tax Period (as determined pursuant to Section 5.6(a) in the case of the Straddle Period), and (ii) any Taxes of Buyer (or its Affiliates) for any period whatsoever.

Section 1.4 Excluded Obligations.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Seller and its Affiliates shall retain and be responsible for any and all of their respective Obligations, other than to the extent constituting Assumed Obligations (such retained Obligations, “Excluded Obligations”), which Excluded Obligations shall in all events include any Obligation arising from or otherwise attributable to any of the following:

(a) any Obligation of Seller or any of its Affiliates arising out of or relating to the negotiation, execution, delivery or performance of any Transaction Document, including any fees, costs or expenses (including of legal counsel, investment bankers, brokers or other representatives and consultants and appraisal fees, costs and expenses);

(b) any Obligation of Seller or any of its Affiliates arising out of or relating to the Excluded Assets;

(c) any Obligation arising from or relating to any action taken by Seller or any of its Affiliates, or any failure on the part of Seller or any of its Affiliates to take any action, at any time after the Closing Date;

(d) except with the prior written consent of Buyer in accordance with Section 5.5(c), any Obligation arising out of or under any Program Contract;

(e) (i) any Taxes arising in connection with the Program or with respect to the Purchased Assets for (or relating to) a Pre-Closing Tax Period (as determined pursuant to Section 5.6(a) in the case of the Straddle Period), (ii) any Taxes of Seller or any of its Affiliates for any period whatsoever, and (iii) Transfer Taxes that are the responsibility of Seller pursuant to Section 5.6(b); and

(f) any Obligation arising at any time prior to the Closing Date (including any Obligation arising as a result of any action or inaction on the part of Seller or any of its Affiliates prior to the Closing Date), whether or not related to the Program or the Purchased Assets.

Section 1.5 Consideration.

(a) Closing Consideration. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, in consideration for the sale, transfer, conveyance, assignment and delivery of the Purchased Assets, Buyer agrees to (i) at the Closing, assume the Assumed Obligations, and (ii) pay or cause to be paid to Seller, without obligation to Seller for any transfer fees or charges charged by Buyer’s bank, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account designated by Seller set forth on Schedule 1.5 hereto, an amount equal to One Million U.S. Dollars ($1,000,000) (the “Closing Consideration”).

(b) Contingent Consideration.

(i) Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement, in further consideration of the sale, transfer, conveyance, assignment and delivery of the Purchased Assets by Seller to Buyer, Buyer shall pay or cause to be paid to Seller, without obligation to Seller for any transfer fees or charges by Buyer's bank, by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account designated by Seller in writing, the applicable amount set forth in Section 1.5(b)(i)(A) or Section 1.5(b)(i)(B) below within thirty (30) days of Seller delivering to Buyer a written invoice therefor following the notice from Buyer of the achievement of the [***] Milestone or Net Sales Milestone, as applicable; provided further that Buyer shall notify Seller in writing as promptly as reasonably practicable, but no later than fifteen (15) days following, as applicable, (x) the achievement of the [***] Milestone or (y) the end of the calendar year in which the Net Sales Milestone is achieved:

(A) upon the [***] (the "[***] Milestone"), an amount equal to Two Million Five Hundred Thousand U.S. Dollars ($2,500,000) (the "[***] Milestone Consideration"); and

(B) upon the [***] (the "Net Sales Milestone"), an amount equal to Fifty Million U.S. Dollars ($50,000,000) (the "Net Sales Consideration").

(ii) In no event will Seller be entitled to receive a payment under either Section 1.5(b)(i)(A) or Section 1.5(b)(i)(B) on more than one occasion, regardless of the number of times the applicable milestone is subsequently achieved. If the Net Sales Milestone is achieved before the [***] Milestone, then the [***] Milestone will be deemed to have occurred upon the occurrence of the Net Sales Milestone. Any amount paid to Seller pursuant to Section 1.5(b)(i)(A) or Section 1.5(b)(i)(B) shall be treated as an adjustment to the purchase price for Tax purposes and shall be treated as such by Buyer and Seller on their respective Tax Returns, unless otherwise required by applicable Law.

(iii) As used herein, "Net Sales" means [***].

Section 1.6 Interest

If any amount payable under this Agreement is not paid in full by the date on which such amount is required to be paid pursuant to the terms hereof, then the Party entitled to receive such payment may charge interest on any outstanding amount of such payment, accruing as of the original due date, at an annual rate equal to the lesser of (a) the sum of (i) the U.S. prime rate (as reported in The Wall Street Journal as may vary during the applicable interest rate period; provided that, in event that The Wall Street Journal reports more than one such rate, or a range of rates, at any time, then the mean of the quoted rates; provided further that, in the event that The Wall Street Journal fails to report any such rate, then the mean annual interest rate of the four largest U.S. money center commercial banks) plus (ii) two percentage points (2.0%) and (b) the maximum rate allowable by applicable Law. The accrual or payment of such interest shall not foreclose a Party from exercising any other rights to which such Party may be entitled as a result of the delay in or failure to make payment by the other Party.

Section 1.7 Withholding of Taxes.

Each Party (and its respective Affiliates and agents) shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from amounts payable pursuant to this Agreement such amounts that are required to be deducted and withheld under applicable Law; provided, however, that if applicable Laws require a Party to deduct and withhold Taxes from any amounts payable or otherwise deliverable pursuant to this Agreement, then such amounts shall be remitted to the proper federal, state, local or foreign Tax authorities and such amount shall not reduce the amount due to the recipient Party hereunder; provided further that the foregoing proviso shall not apply to the extent that any Party that is a recipient of a payment hereunder takes any action after the date hereof that results in an increase in withholding Taxes that would not be required absent such action, including a change of control, change in tax residence (including through redomestication, permanent establishment or branch), or sublicense or assignment of any rights under this Agreement. Both Parties will cooperate in taking necessary measures, including timely preparation of necessary documents, so that the payments made under this Agreement will be exempt from withholding tax.

Section 1.8 Allocation.

Buyer and Seller shall reasonably cooperate with one another with respect to all matters related to any allocation of the Purchase Price (as well as any other items properly treated as consideration for Tax purposes) among the Purchased Assets that is undertaken for the Tax reporting purposes in the respective jurisdictions of Buyer and Seller. Nothing in this provision shall be construed to require the Parties to agree on a single allocation of the Purchase Price and each Party may freely assign its own allocation of the Purchase Price among the Purchased Assets for its respective Tax purposes.

Section 1.9 Closing.

The consummation of the purchase and sale of the Purchased Assets in accordance with this Agreement and the other transactions contemplated hereby (the “Closing”) will take place remotely via the electronic exchange of documentation at 7:00 p.m. (New York time) on the date of this Agreement. The “Closing Date” will be deemed to have occurred at 12:01 a.m. (New York time) on the date upon which the Closing occurs. All events which occur at the Closing shall be deemed to occur simultaneously.

Section 1.10 Seller Closing Deliveries.

Seller shall deliver to Buyer at the Closing:

(a) a bill of sale, dated as of the Closing Date, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Bill of Sale”), duly executed by Seller;

(b) a patent assignment agreement, dated as of the Closing Date, in the form attached as Exhibit B (the “Patent Assignment”), duly executed by Seller;

(c) the consents and approvals set forth on Schedule 1.10(c), in form and substance satisfactory to Buyer, in each case duly executed by the Persons identified therein; and

(d) a Form W-9, duly completed and executed by Seller.

Section 1.11 Buyer Closing Deliveries.

Buyer shall deliver to Seller at the Closing:

(a) the Bill of Sale, duly executed by Buyer;

(b) the Patent Assignment, duly executed by Buyer; and

(c) a copy of the MT103 SWIFT payment message evidencing the payment of the consideration payable at Closing pursuant to Section 1.5(a).

Section 1.12 Tangible Purchased Assets.

Seller shall, and shall cause each of its Affiliates to, without charge to Buyer, for a period not to exceed twenty (20) Business Days, hold all tangible Purchased Assets (other than tangible Purchased Assets that are held on behalf of Seller or any of its Affiliates by any Third Party) on behalf of Buyer until such time or times that Buyer or any of its designees takes possession thereof.

ARTICLE II
REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF SELLER

Seller hereby represents and warrants to Buyer as follows, with each such representation and warranty subject only to such exceptions, if any, as are expressly referenced herein or as set forth on the corresponding section or subsection (as applicable) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule attached hereto as Schedule 2:

Section 2.1 Organization, Standing and Power.

On and before the Closing Date, Seller is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and all other jurisdictions in which its ownership of property or conduct of business requires Seller to be qualified to conduct business. Seller has all necessary corporate power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party and perform its obligations hereunder and thereunder.

Seller has all necessary corporate power and authority to carry on the Program through the Closing Date as presently conducted.

Section 2.2 Affiliates.

Section 2.2 of the Seller Disclosure Schedule sets forth a true and complete list of each Affiliate of Seller and its jurisdiction of formation. Each Affiliate of Seller is directly or indirectly controlled by Seller. Other than as set forth on Section 2.2 of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, neither Seller nor any of its Affiliates have any equity interest or any right to an equity interest in any other Person. Each Affiliate is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its formation and all other jurisdictions in which its ownership of property or conduct of business requires such Affiliate to be qualified to conduct business. Each Affiliate has all necessary legal power and authority to execute and deliver the Transaction Documents to which it is a party and perform its obligations thereunder. Each Affiliate has all necessary corporate power and authority to carry on the Program as presently conducted.

Section 2.3 Consents; Authorization and Enforceability.

(a) No consent, waiver, approval, order or authorization of, or registration, declaration or filing with, or notice to any Governmental Authority or other Third Party is required by, or with respect to, Seller, any of its Affiliates or the Purchased Assets in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents to which it is a party, the performance by Seller of its obligations under this Agreement, the performance by any Affiliate contemplated under this Agreement or the other Transaction Documents, or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

(b) All requisite corporate action necessary to authorize the execution, delivery and performance by Seller of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which Seller is a party and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby has been duly and validly taken. All requisite limited liability company action necessary to authorize the execution, delivery and performance by any Affiliate of Seller of the Transaction Documents to which such Affiliate is a party and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby has been duly and validly taken. No consent, approval or waiver of, nor notice to, any equityholder of Seller or any of its Affiliates is required in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the other Transaction Documents to which Seller or any of its Affiliates is a party and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. This Agreement and each other Transaction Document to which Seller or any of its Affiliates is a party constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of Seller or such Affiliate, enforceable against Seller or such Affiliate in accordance with its terms, except as may be limited by (i) any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent transfer or other similar Law affecting creditors' rights generally or (ii) general principles of equity (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a Proceeding in equity or at law) (clauses (i) and (ii), together, the “Enforceability Exceptions”).

Section 2.4 Title to Assets.

All Purchased Assets are held directly by Seller (and not indirectly through any Affiliate of Seller) as of immediately prior to the Closing. Seller has, and Buyer will receive at the Closing, good, valid, transferable, indefeasible and marketable title to all of the Purchased Assets. Seller holds, and Buyer will receive at the Closing, all of the Purchased Assets free and clear of all Liens (other than Permitted Liens).

Section 2.5 Sufficiency of Assets.

(a) To Seller's Knowledge, the Purchased Assets (together with the Licensed IP) constitute all of the assets, rights, interests, claims and properties of every nature and kind whatsoever necessary for Buyer to conduct and operate the Program immediately after the Closing (assuming Buyer provides personnel and laboratory space following the Closing) as presently conducted by or on behalf of Seller and its Affiliates and, to Seller's Knowledge, as proposed to be conducted by Buyer.

(b) The Purchased Assets (together with the Licensed IP) constitute all of the assets, rights, interests, claims and properties of every nature and kind whatsoever related to the Molecules and the Program acquired by Seller under the 2022 Asset Purchase Agreement.

Section 2.6 Non-Contravention; Required Consents.

If any Indemnified Party has determined that any matters (other than a Third Party Claim) have given or could give rise to a right of indemnification under this Agreement, the Indemnified Party shall so notify the Party from whom indemnification is sought (the “Indemnifying Party”) as promptly as reasonably practicable, describing in reasonable detail the basis for such claim. If any Indemnified Party receives written notice of the assertion of any Proceeding (in equity or at law) instituted by a Third Party (a “Third Party Claim”) with respect to which the Indemnified Party intends to claim any Loss under this Article VI, such Indemnified Party shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party of such Proceeding (the “Third Party Claim Notice”), describing in reasonable detail the basis for such claim. A failure by an Indemnified Party to give notice of any Proceeding in a timely manner pursuant to this Section 6.3 shall not relieve or limit the obligations of the Indemnifying Party under this Article VI, except (and only to the extent), if at all, that such Indemnifying Party shall have been actually and materially prejudiced thereby.

Section 6.4 Direct Claims.

Responsibility for any Losses that are the subject of a claim notice (other than a Third Party Claim Notice) may be allocated by a mutual written agreement executed by each of the Parties and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Parties acknowledge and agree that the Federal Rules of Evidence Rule 408 shall apply to the Parties during any negotiations and any subsequent Dispute in connection therewith. Any Dispute arising therefrom shall be resolved in accordance with Section 7.4.

Section 6.5 Third Party Claims.

(a) An Indemnifying Party under this Article VI shall have the right, but not the obligation, exercisable by written notice to the Indemnified Party within twelve (12) Business Days of receipt of a Third Party Claim Notice, to assume the conduct and control, at the expense of the Indemnifying Party and through reputable counsel of its choosing that is reasonably acceptable to the Indemnified Party (which acceptance not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of any Third Party Claim; provided that it shall be a condition for the Indemnifying Party to assume such defense that the Indemnifying Party shall have acknowledged in writing to the Indemnified Party its obligation to indemnify the Indemnified Party for any and all Losses that are directly or indirectly suffered, incurred or sustained by any Indemnified Party to the extent resulting from, arising out of or relating to such Third Party Claim; provided further that the Indemnifying Party shall not have the right to assume or continue the defense of a Third Party Claim if (i) such Third Party Claim relates to a criminal Proceeding, indictment, allegation or investigation against an Indemnified Party, (ii) such Third Party Claim involves requests for injunctive or other equitable relief in respect of an Indemnified Party or its business or any other remedy that is not solely monetary damages, (iii) such Third Party Claim is one in which the Indemnified Party has been advised by outside counsel that (A) a reasonable likelihood exists of a conflict of interest between the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Party or (B) there are legal defenses available to the Indemnified Party that are different from or additional to those available to the Indemnifying Party, (iv) such Third Party Claim involves a claim which, upon petition by the Indemnified Party, a court of competent jurisdiction rules that such Indemnifying Party failed or is failing to reasonably prosecute or defend, or (v) such Third Party Claim is a Proceeding relating to Tax or otherwise involves a party thereto which is a Governmental Authority. In the event the Indemnifying Party elects to assume the defense of a Third Party Claim in accordance with the foregoing, the Indemnified Party shall have the right to participate in, but not control, the defense of any such Third Party Claim through counsel chosen by the Indemnified Party, whose fees and expenses shall be borne by the Indemnified Party.

(b) The Indemnifying Party shall not offer or agree to any settlement, compromise or discharge of, or entry of any judgment with respect to, any Third Party Claim without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed); provided, that the consent of the Indemnified Party will not be required if each of the following requirements is satisfied: (i) the Indemnifying Party agrees in writing to pay the full amount of the Losses in connection with such Third Party Claim and such settlement, compromise or discharge does not otherwise require any Indemnified Party to make any payment in respect thereof, (ii) such settlement, compromise or discharge includes a full, complete, irrevocable and unconditional release of the Indemnified Parties from further Losses in respect of such Third Party Claim, (iii) such settlement, compromise or discharge does not require the admission of any Obligation on the part of any Indemnified Party or include or involve any finding or admission of any violation of Law or wrongdoing thereby, and (iv) such settlement, compromise or discharge does not (A) impose any equitable or other non-monetary remedies or obligations on any Indemnified Party, (B) require any Indemnified Party to waive any rights that such Indemnified Party may have against the Person making the Third Party Claim or (C) result in any other restriction or condition that would apply to or affect any Indemnified Party or the conduct of its business.

(c) No Indemnified Party may offer or agree to any settlement, compromise or discharge of, or entry of any judgment with respect to, any Third Party Claim for which it is seeking indemnification hereunder without the consent of the Indemnifying Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(b) Subject to the time limitations of this Article VI and in Section 7.2, in addition to any other available remedy, Buyer shall be entitled, at its sole option, on behalf of itself or any other Buyer Indemnified Party, to set-off, recoup or reserve against any amounts otherwise due and payable by Buyer to Seller under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document (including any contingent consideration pursuant to Section 1.5(b)), all or any portion of any amounts due or payable to a Buyer Indemnified Party from Seller in accordance with Section 6.6(a).

(c) To the extent allowable by applicable Law, the Parties agree that the making of any indemnity payment hereunder shall be treated as an adjustment to the Purchase Price for Tax purposes and shall be treated as such by Buyer and Seller on their respective Tax Returns.

Section 6.7 LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

(a) SUBJECT TO AND WITHOUT LIMITING (I) THE INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS OF EACH PARTY WITH RESPECT TO THIRD PARTY CLAIMS UNDER SECTION 6.1 (SELLER'S OBLIGATION TO INDEMNIFY) OR SECTION 6.2 (BUYER'S OBLIGATION TO INDEMNIFY), (II) LIABILITY AS A RESULT OF A BREACH OF SECTION 5.1 (OBLIGATIONS OF CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-USE) OR SECTION 5.4 (NON-COMPETITION), OR (III) LIABILITY FOR (A) GROSS NEGLIGENCE, WILLFUL MISCONDUCT, INTENTIONAL BREACH OR FRAUD OR (B) MISAPPROPRIATION OR INFRINGEMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY OWNED OR CONTROLLED BY A PARTY, NEITHER PARTY NOR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE AFFILIATES SHALL BE LIABLE UNDER ANY CONTRACT, WARRANTY, NEGLIGENCE, TORT, STRICT LIABILITY OR OTHER LEGAL OR EQUITABLE THEORY FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE, MULTIPLIED OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article VI, no amount shall be payable to the Buyer Indemnified Parties pursuant to Section 6.1(a) or the Seller Indemnified Parties pursuant to Section 6.2(a), unless and until, in each case, the aggregate amount of Losses of the Buyer Indemnified Parties or Seller Indemnified Parties, as applicable, arising under Section 6.1(a) or Section 6.2(a), as applicable, exceeds $[***] (the "Threshold"), at which time Seller or Buyer, as applicable, shall indemnify the Buyer Indemnified Parties or Seller Indemnified Parties, as applicable, for the amount of all Losses under Section 6.1(a) or Section 6.2(a), as applicable (including the amount of the Threshold); provided, however, the Threshold and this Section 6.7(b)

Section 7.4 Governing Law; Dispute Resolution.

(a) This Agreement and any Dispute will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflict of law principles thereof; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the interpretation and enforcement of the arbitration procedures set forth in Section 7.4(b) shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act.

(b) Each of the Parties irrevocably and unconditionally agrees (on behalf of itself and the Indemnified Parties) that any Proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby shall be determined by arbitration administered by the International Centre for Dispute Resolution in accordance with its International Arbitration Rules (the “IAR”); provided that judgment on an arbitrator’s award as finally determined in accordance with this Section 7.4(b) and the IAR may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. The number of arbitrators shall be one. The place of arbitration shall be New York, New York. The language of the arbitration shall be English. Any award of damages, declaratory relief, equitable relief or other remedies may be granted by the arbitrator only in a manner that is consistent with these terms or this Agreement. The arbitrator may render a summary disposition relative to all or some of the issues underlying a Proceeding; provided that the responding party has had an adequate opportunity to respond to any such application for such disposition. All aspects of the arbitration shall be treated as confidential, as provided by the IAR. Before a Party or any of its Affiliates (or their respective Representatives) makes any disclosure permitted by the IAR, such Party shall give written notice to the other Party and afford such other Party a reasonable opportunity to protect its interests. Each Party shall bear its own costs of arbitration; provided that the parties shall share the fees and expenses of the arbitrator equally.

Section 7.5    Expenses.

Except as otherwise specified herein, all costs and expenses, including fees and disbursements of counsel, financial advisors and accountants, incurred in connection with this Agreement, the other Transaction Documents and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby will be paid by the Party incurring such costs and expenses.

Section 7.6    Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. A Person's execution and delivery of this Agreement and any other Transaction Document in "PDF" or similar format or by electronic signature and electronic transmission (jointly, an "Electronic Signature"), including via DocuSign or other similar method, shall constitute the execution and delivery of a counterpart of this Agreement or such other Transaction Document by or on behalf of such Person and shall bind such Person to the terms of this Agreement or such other Transaction Document. Any Person executing and delivering this Agreement or any other Transaction Document by Electronic Signature further agrees to (a) take any and all reasonable additional actions, if any, evidencing its intent to be bound by the terms of this Agreement or such other Transaction Document, as may be reasonably requested by the other Party and (b) deliver to the other Party an original signature page to this Agreement as promptly as reasonably practicable following the Closing.

Section 7.7    Entire Agreement.

This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents, including the Schedules and Exhibits hereto and thereto and the documents referred to herein and therein, embodies the entire agreement and understanding of the Parties in respect of the subject matter hereof. This Agreement and the other Transaction Documents supersede all prior agreements and understandings (including any confidentiality agreements) between the Parties with respect to such subject matter.

Section 7.8    Amendment and Modification.

This Agreement may be amended or modified only by a written agreement executed by each of the Parties.

Section 7.9 Waiver.

Neither the failure nor any delay on the part of any Party in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement or any other Transaction Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any waiver on the part of any Party of any such right, power or privilege, nor any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other such right, power or privilege. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement shall be binding unless executed in writing by the Party to be bound thereby.

Section 7.10 Binding Effect; Third Party Beneficiaries.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement; provided that any Indemnified Party shall be considered a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement, with full rights of enforcement as though such Person was a signatory to this Agreement.

Section 7.11 Assignability.

This Agreement shall not be assignable by any Party hereto (whether by operation of Law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other Party; provided that (a) either Party's rights under this Agreement may be assigned without the prior written consent of the other Party to any Affiliate of such Party; and (b) any Person that acquires (i) all or substantially all of the assets of or equity interests in Seller or any of its Affiliates or (ii) all or substantially all of the Purchased Assets from Buyer or any of its Affiliates shall be bound by the provisions of Section 1.5(b) (Contingent Consideration), Section 1.6 (Interest), Section 1.7 (Withholding of Taxes), Section 1.8 (Allocation), Article IV (License Grant), Article V (Covenants), Article VI (Indemnification) and Article VII (Miscellaneous) to the same extent Seller or Buyer, as applicable, is so bound. Any purported assignment in contravention of this Section 7.11 shall be void and invalid.

Section 7.12 Interpretation Provisions.

(a) The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of similar import when used in this Agreement refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement, and Article, Section, Schedule and Exhibit references are to this Agreement unless otherwise specified. The meaning of defined terms shall be equally applicable to the singular and plural forms of the defined terms. The term "or" is inclusive and not exclusive, unless its use is preceded by the word "either" or other words of similar import. The terms "include" and "including" are not limiting and mean "including without limitation." Use of a particular gender is for convenience only and is not intended to be a part of or to affect or restrict the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement.

(b) References to agreements and other documents shall be deemed to include all subsequent amendments and other modifications thereto.

(c) References to statutes shall include all regulations promulgated thereunder and references to statutes or regulations shall be construed as including all statutory and regulatory provisions consolidating, amending or replacing the statute or regulation.

(d) The captions and headings of this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction of this Agreement.

(e) Each Party agrees that it has been represented by counsel during the negotiation and execution of this Agreement and, therefore, waives the application of any Law, regulation, holding or rule of construction providing that ambiguities in an agreement or other document will be construed against the Party (or its Representatives) drafting such agreement or document. The Parties intend that each representation, warranty, and covenant contained herein shall have independent significance. If any Party has breached any representation, warranty, or covenant contained herein (or is otherwise entitled to indemnification) in any respect, the fact that there exists another representation, warranty, or covenant (including any indemnification provision) relating to the same subject matter (regardless of the relative levels of specificity) which such Party has not breached (or is not otherwise entitled to indemnification with respect thereto) shall not detract from or mitigate the fact that such Party is in breach of the first representation, warranty, or covenant (or is otherwise entitled to indemnification pursuant to a different provision).

(f) The Schedules and Exhibits to this Agreement are a material part hereof and shall be treated as if fully incorporated into the body of this Agreement.

Section 7.13 Severability.

Whenever possible, each provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law, but if any provision or portion of any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable Law, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of (a) any other provision or portion of any provision in such jurisdiction or (b) any provision of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction.

Section 7.14 Specific Performance.

The Parties agree that irreparable damage, for which monetary damages (even if available) would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event any provision hereof were not performed in accordance with the terms hereof and that the Parties will be entitled to seek specific performance of the terms hereof, in addition to any other remedy at law or in equity, through arbitration in accordance with Section 7.4(b) (or on an interim or temporary basis pending final resolution by arbitration in accordance with Section 7.4(b), any court in any jurisdiction, whether within or outside of the United States), without the necessity of demonstrating the inadequacy of monetary damages and without the posting of a bond. Each Party agrees that it will not oppose any request of specific performance or other equitable relief on the basis that the other Party has an adequate remedy at law or that an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or equity.

Section 7.15 Force Majeure.

Neither Seller nor any of its Affiliates shall be held liable to Buyer, nor be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Agreement, for failure or delay in performing any obligation under Section 5.3(b) to the extent such failure or delay is caused by or results from causes beyond the reasonable control of Seller and its Affiliates, including embargoes, war, acts of war (whether war be declared or not), insurrections, riots, civil commotions, strikes, lockouts or other labor disturbances, fire, floods, epidemic, pandemic or other acts of God or any other deity, or acts, omissions or delays in acting by any Governmental Authority. In such event, (a) Seller shall notify Buyer of such force majeure circumstances as soon as reasonably practical, and shall promptly undertake all reasonable efforts necessary to cure such force majeure circumstances, and (b) excuse from performance under Section 5.3(b) shall be continued so long as the condition constituting force majeure continues and Seller and its Affiliates use reasonable efforts to remove the condition.

BILL OF SALE

This BILL OF SALE (this “Bill of Sale”), dated as of February 25, 2024, is entered into by and between iBio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Transferor”), and Otsuka Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., a company organized under the Laws of Japan (“Transferee”). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein will have the meanings ascribed to such terms by the Agreement (as defined below).

WHEREAS, Transferor and Transferee are entering into that certain Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of the date hereof (the “Agreement”), pursuant to which, among other things, Transferor is agreeing to sell, transfer, convey, assign and deliver to Transferee, and Transferee is agreeing to purchase, acquire and accept from Transferor, all of the right, title and interest of Transferor in and to the Purchased Assets;

WHEREAS, as contemplated by the Agreement, Transferor and Transferee are entering into that certain Patent Assignment Agreement, dated as of the date hereof, pursuant to which certain Patents constituting Purchased Assets are being transferred, conveyed, assigned and delivered to Transferee (the “Transferred Patents”);

WHEREAS, in accordance with Section 1.2 of the Agreement, Contracts otherwise constituting Purchased Assets are excepted from transfer at the Closing (the “Relevant Contracts”); and

WHEREAS, as contemplated by the Agreement, Transferor and Transferee desire to document the transfer of the Purchased Assets, other than the Transferred Patents and the Relevant Contracts (the “Transferred Assets”), from Transferor to Transferee on the terms set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants and the agreements herein set forth, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Sale of Transferred Assets. In consideration of the mutual obligations, releases and promises set forth in the Agreement, Transferor by this Bill of Sale does hereby transfer, convey, assign and deliver to Transferee all of the right, title and interest of Transferor in and to the Transferred Assets, free and clear of all Liens except Permitted Liens. For the avoidance of doubt, in accordance with the Agreement, (a) in no event shall the Transferred Assets include any Excluded Assets and (b) Transferee assumes no Obligations of Transferor involving the Transferred Assets which arise from any period prior to the Closing Date or any other Excluded Obligations, and any such Obligations shall remain the sole responsibility of Transferor.

2. Transfer of Purchased IP. For the avoidance of doubt, this Bill of Sale does hereby transfer, convey, assign and deliver to Transferee all worldwide right, title and interest in and to the Purchased IP (other than the Transferred Patents), together with the goodwill symbolized thereby, including all rights to sue and recover for past infringement.

3. Power of Attorney. Transferor hereby irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints Transferee (and its successors and permitted assigns) as Transferor’s true and lawful attorney-in-fact (with full power of substitution), in the name of Transferor but on behalf and for the benefit of Transferee (and its successors and permitted assigns), to, from time to time, (a) demand and receive any and all of the Transferred Assets, (b) give receipts and releases for and in respect of the Transferred Assets or any part thereof and (c) institute and prosecute in Transferor's name or otherwise, for the benefit of Transferee (or any of its successors or permitted assigns), any and all Proceedings for the collection or reduction to possession of any of the Transferred Assets or for the collection and enforcement of any claim or right of any kind hereby conveyed, transferred and assigned, or intended so to be, and to do all acts relating to the Transferred Assets which Transferee, and its successors or assigns, deem desirable. The power of attorney referred to in the preceding sentence is and shall be coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable, and shall survive the dissolution or insolvency of Transferor.

4. Further Assurances. Transferor hereby covenants that, from time to time after the delivery of this Bill of Sale, at Transferee's request and without further consideration, Transferor will do, execute, acknowledge and deliver, or will cause to be done, executed, acknowledged and delivered, all such further acts, deeds, conveyances, transfers, assignments, powers of attorney and assurances as reasonably may be requested by Transferee to more effectively convey, transfer to and vest in Transferee, and to put Transferee in possession of, any of the Transferred Assets.

5. Entire Agreement; Supremacy. This Bill of Sale (along with the other Transaction Documents) contains and constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior negotiations, agreements and understandings, whether written or oral, of the parties hereto; provided that nothing in this Bill of Sale, express or implied, is intended or shall be construed as expanding, defeating, impairing or limiting in any way the rights, obligations, claims or remedies of Transferor or Transferee as set forth in the Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Agreement and the terms hereof, the terms of the Agreement shall govern.

6. Amendment; Modification. This Bill of Sale may be amended or modified only by a written agreement executed by each of Transferor and Transferee.

7. No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Bill of Sale shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of Transferor, Transferee and their respective successors and permitted assigns and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Bill of Sale.

8. Assignability. This Bill of Sale shall not be assignable (whether by operation of Law or otherwise) by Transferor or Transferee without the prior written consent of Transferor and Transferee; provided that Transferee's rights hereunder may be assigned without the prior written consent of Transferor to (a) any Affiliate of Transferee or (b) any Person that acquires all or substantially all of the Transferred Assets (to the extent then remaining in existence). Any purported assignment in contravention of this Section 8 shall be void and invalid.

9. Governing Law; Dispute Resolution. This Bill of Sale, and any claim or controversy arising out of or relating to this Bill of Sale or the transactions contemplated hereby, will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflict of law principles thereof, in accordance with and subject to Section 7.4(a) of the Agreement. Section 7.4 of the Agreement shall apply to this Bill of Sale mutatis mutandis.

10. Severability. Whenever possible, each provision or portion of any provision of this Bill of Sale shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision or portion of any provision of this Bill of Sale is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of (a) any other provision or portion of any provision in such jurisdiction or (b) any provision of this Bill of Sale in any other jurisdiction.

11. Counterparts. This Bill of Sale may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. The execution and delivery of this Bill of Sale by a party hereto in "PDF" or similar format or by electronic signature and electronic transmission, including via DocuSign or other similar method, shall constitute the execution and delivery of a counterpart of this Bill of Sale by or on behalf of such party hereto and shall bind such party hereto to the terms of this Bill of Sale. Each party hereto agrees to take any and all reasonable additional actions, if any, evidencing its intent to be bound by the terms of this Bill of Sale, as may be reasonably requested by the other party hereto.

PATENT ASSIGNMENT AGREEMENT

This Patent Assignment Agreement, dated as of February 25, 2024 (this “Assignment”), is entered into by and between iBio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Assignor”), and Otsuka Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd., a company organized under the Laws of Japan (“Assignee”). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein will have the meanings ascribed to such terms by the Agreement (as defined below).

WHEREAS, Assignor owns the entire right, title, and interest in and to each patent and patent application listed on Schedule 1 hereto, and the inventions described in and underlying such patents and patent applications (collectively, the “Transferred Patents”);

WHEREAS, Assignor and Assignee are entering into that certain Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of the date hereof (the “Agreement”), pursuant to which, among other things, Assignor is agreeing to sell, transfer, convey, assign and deliver to Assignee, and Assignee is agreeing to purchase, acquire and accept from Assignor, all of the right, title and interest of Assignor in and to the Purchased Assets, including the Transferred Patents; and

WHEREAS, Assignor and Assignee desire to document the transfer of the Transferred Patents from Assignor to Assignee on the terms set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants and the agreements herein set forth, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Consideration. The good and valuable consideration given by or on behalf of the Assignee is the amount provided under the Agreement, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged by Assignor.

2. Assignment.

(a) Assignor hereby irrevocably sells, transfers, conveys, assigns and delivers to Assignee, and Assignee hereby purchases, acquires and accepts from Assignor, all of the right, title and interest in and to the Transferred Patents, together with all rights, privileges, and advantages thereto, including, without limitation, the rights (i) to take, defend, or appeal proceedings, claims and causes of actions with respect to any of the foregoing, (ii) to recover (and retain) damages, and obtain injunctive and other legal and equitable relief for past, present, and future infringement, misappropriation, violation, misuse, default or breach thereof, (iii) to receive any and all royalties, fees, income, payments and other proceeds now or hereafter due or payable with respect to any of the Transferred Patents, and (iv) to file, maintain and enforce patent applications and issued patents under the laws of the United States and any other country that claim priority from any patent application therein, wherever such right may be legally exercised, including the right to claim the benefits of the International Convention for such applications.

(b) Assignor hereby authorizes and requests the United States Commissioner of Patents, and the corresponding entities or agencies in any applicable jurisdictions, to record and register this Assignment and to issue any and all patents directed to the Transferred Patents to Assignee as the owner thereof.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, the term “Transferred Patents” shall include all issuances, continuations, continuations-in-part, provisionals, and divisionals of any United States patent application(s) or international patent application(s) designating the United States, any national stages of any international application(s), and any other patent application(s) claiming priority to any patent listed in Schedule 1, including further continuations, continuations-in-part, and divisionals such as, but not limited to, continuations of continuations and continuations of divisionals; all patents, utility models, or other grants that issue from any of the applications referred to herein and all rights and remedies associated with any of the foregoing, including the right to sue for and recover past damages and to recover under 35 U.S.C. § 154 (d) or any other law permitting remedies for infringement prior to issuance of the patent; all registrations and confirmations of, and importation certificates based upon, one or more of said patents, utility models, or other grants, and applications for such registrations, confirmations and importation certificates; and all reissues, renewals and extensions of said patents, utility models, registrations, confirmations and importation certificates, reexamination certificates issued for said patents and supplementary protection certificates based upon said patents and applications for such reissues, renewals, extensions, reexamination certificates and supplementary protection certificates, the same to be held and enjoyed by said Assignee to the full ends of the terms for which said patents, utility models, registrations, confirmations, importation certificates, reexamination certificates, supplementary protection certificates, reissues, renewals and extensions may be granted, as fully and entirely as the same would have been held and enjoyed by Assignor if this sale, assignment and transfer had not been made.

3. Further Assurances; Power of Attorney. Assignor hereby agrees to execute and deliver all affidavits, declarations, oaths, exhibits, assignments, powers of attorney, or other documents, assist in all proceedings and take any further steps that are reasonably necessary (at the sole cost and expense of Assignee) to effectuate or evidence the transfer of the Transferred Patents to Assignee (or any assignee or successor thereto), or the perfection, registration, or recordation of the rights of Assignee (or its assignee or successor) thereto. Assignor hereby irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints Assignee (and its successors and permitted assigns) as Assignor’s true and lawful attorney-in-fact (with full power of substitution) to execute all such documents related to the Transferred Patents on behalf of Assignor, including in accordance with 37 C.F.R. § 3.73. The power of attorney referred to in the preceding sentence is and shall be coupled with an interest and shall be irrevocable, and shall survive the dissolution or insolvency of Assignor.

4. Entire Agreement; Supremacy. This Assignment (along with the other Transaction Documents) contains and constitutes the entire agreement of the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior negotiations, agreements and understandings, whether written or oral, of the parties hereto; provided that nothing in this Assignment, express or implied, is intended or shall be construed as expanding, defeating, impairing or limiting in any way the rights, obligations, claims or remedies of Assignor and Assignee as set forth in the Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Agreement and the terms hereof, the terms of the Agreement shall govern.

5. Amendment; Modification. This Assignment may be amended or modified only by a written agreement executed by each of Assignor and Assignee.

6. No Third Party Beneficiaries. This Assignment shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of Assignor, Assignee and their respective successors and permitted assigns and nothing herein, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other Person any legal or equitable right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Assignment.

7. Assignability. This Assignment shall not be assignable by either party hereto (whether by operation of Law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other party hereto; provided that Assignee's rights hereunder may be assigned without the prior written consent of Assignor to (a) any Affiliate of Assignee or (b) any Person that acquires all or substantially all of the Transferred Patents. Any purported assignment in contravention of this Section 7 shall be void and invalid.

8. Governing Law. This Assignment, and any claim or controversy arising out of or relating to this Assignment or the transactions contemplated hereby, will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to the conflict of law principles thereof, in accordance with and subject to Section 7.4(a) of the Agreement. Section 7.4 of the Agreement shall apply to this Assignment mutatis mutandis.

9. Severability. Whenever possible, each provision or portion of any provision of this Assignment shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision or portion of any provision of this Assignment is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable law, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect the validity, legality or enforceability of (a) any other provision or portion of any provision in such jurisdiction or (b) any provision of this Assignment in any other jurisdiction.

10. Counterparts. This Assignment may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. The execution and delivery of this Assignment by a party hereto in "PDF" or similar format or by electronic signature and electronic transmission, including via DocuSign or other similar method, shall constitute the execution and delivery of a counterpart of this Assignment by or on behalf of such party hereto and shall bind such party hereto to the terms of this Assignment. Each party hereto agrees to take any and all reasonable additional actions, if any, evidencing its intent to be bound by the terms of this Assignment, as may be reasonably requested by the other party hereto.

iBio Announces Sale of Preclinical PD-1 Agonist Antibody Program to Otsuka

– Deal includes $1 million upfront and potential future milestone payments–

– iBio’s proprietary therapeutic pipeline will now be comprised entirely of promising immuno-oncology candidates –

BRYAN, TX and SAN DIEGO, CA; February 26, 2024 -- iBio, Inc. (NYSEA:IBIO) (“iBio” or the “Company”), an AI-driven innovator of precision antibody immunotherapies, announces today that it has entered into an asset purchase agreement (“Agreement”) with Otsuka Pharmaceutical Co., Ltd. (“Otsuka”), pursuant to which Otsuka acquired iBio’s assets related to its early-stage programmed cell death protein 1 (“PD-1”) agonist program. The transaction closed on February 25, 2024.

Under the terms of the Agreement, iBio will receive an upfront payment of $1.0 million in cash at closing. iBio will also be eligible to receive additional contingent cash payments totaling up to $52.5 million upon the achievement of certain pre-specified clinical development and commercial milestones.

PD-1 is a pivotal checkpoint in the immune system, acting as a type of “off switch” that helps keep the cells from attacking other cells in the body. By agonizing or enhancing the signaling of PD-1, it is possible to temper the immune response, making it particularly valuable in the treatment of autoimmune diseases. In conditions where the immune system mistakenly wages war on the body’s own cells, such as in autoimmune diabetes or lupus, therapies that target PD-1 can potentially reduce the severity of these autoimmune reactions. However, unlike PD-1 antagonists used in immuno-oncology, PD-1 agonists, like the one iBio is selling to Otsuka, are difficult to find.

“We believe this is an important transaction for iBio, and a win-win for both companies,” said iBio’s Chief Executive Officer and Chief Scientific Officer, Martin Brenner, DVM, Ph.D. “The deal provides iBio with a potential significant new source of non-dilutive capital if all of the milestones are satisfied; further validates the ability of our precision-driven and deeply integrated technology stack to efficiently deliver antibody candidates against challenging targets, including the development of complex antibody modalities such as agonistic antibodies; and allows us to focus our resources squarely on the continued development of our proprietary immuno-oncology pipeline and AI-based drug discovery platform. At the same time, it provides a path forward for the PD-1 agonist program via further development by Otsuka.”
